Does Good Detective Work

City Marshal Roe Strong, in connection with his duties as a city official, does quite a good business in the line of private detective, in which he has been more than ordinarily successful. He is a graduate of the C. T. Ludwigh school of Kansas City and a member of the Springfield Detective Agency, 923 Woodruff Building, of which L. Dyer and F. P. Scott are the managers.
He naturally cannot donate his time to detective work but is willing to do any legitimate work in that line at reasonable prices. He also does work on the reward basis, but when he does this he stipulates that the reward shall be placed in some bank before hand.
In several cases lately Mr. Strong has done creditable work and he is always ready for legitimate detective work, to which he will devote his best efforts.

NOTICE

I am still here among you people—and the fall season is drawing near. We have had a good rain that should cheer us up and you will be sure to buy something in my line. If you think of going somewhere to buy, or of ordering from some mail order house, bring your catalog with you to the store and give me a chance. I am carrying a good line of Furniture, Rugs, Carpets, Wall Paper, Trunks, Suit Cases, and many other things too numerous to mention.
Adv. W. B. FULLINGTON.

Among the candidates for regent's diplomas are M. E. Carter, Hartville; Harriet Newton, Massfield; Ronda Rippee, Mansfield.

Wonders of the Ozarks

Grass grows in the Ozarks—anywhere. Grass may be seen growing from the side of a pole in front of the Freeman-Miller Hardware Co. store. No soil is in evidence, but the grass grows merrily on.

The pulling out of a draw-head on a Frisco flat, loaded with chat necessitated its unloading here Monday.

Cecil V. Hilsabeck's Liabilities Are Many, But Assets Are Few

The bankruptcy case of Cecil V. Hilsabeck, formerly in the bakery business here, came up before John Schmook, referee in bankruptcy, at Springfield Saturday afternoon.
The bankrupt was represented by Perry T. Allen, of Springfield, where Col. L. O. Nieder, of Mansfield, appeared for the creditors.
Little or nothing will be left for Hilsabeck's creditors.
His liabilities are about $1000 and assets $300, with a $300 exemption.
Samuel J. White, of Mansfield, was appointed trustee in bankruptcy.
The first dividend, if any, will be declared in about 30 days, while the final dividend will not be declared until after 90 days, or perhaps not for a year.
In his examination before the referee Hilsabeck said he was married, had one child, was 19 years of age, and that a falling off in business was responsible for the bankruptcy.
C. A. Stephens, N. J. Craig and W. C. Coday were appointed as appraisers Monday to invoice the assets. The appraisal was nearly $300.
The stock will probably be sold soon by order of Referee Schmook.

Long Trip on Motorcycles

With his speedometer showing a total of 1452 miles, no engine trouble whatever, one blowout in the rear tire and the same air in the front tire which he pumped into it before leaving on his trip, Dr. B. J. Patterson, president of the American Federation of Motorcyclists, his wife and daughter, Inez, of Pratt, Kans., arrived in Springfield last night with L. W. Ames, also a member of the party, riding Indian machines.
The two motorcycles are each equipped with a side seat attachment. The party left Pratt several weeks ago for St. Louis over the Santa Fe trail to attend motorcycle races. Following the convention at St. Louis the party left for Iron Mountain Lake where they spent several days fishing, coming direct from there to Springfield over a trail, which, it is said, only two high powered automobiles ever before traversed. The motorcyclists encountered bad roads as far as Lenox, they said, and for one period of 28 miles the engines of both machines were set in low gear.
Dr. Patterson's machine carries 810 pounds equipment actual weight with the two passengers. All hills were climbed on straight gear, the clutch bolts of both machines being knocked off by the rocks shortly after leaving. Miss Patterson changes about with her father and Mr. Ames in running either of the motorcycles and already has a record of having completed a 1678 miles perfect score riding. They will leave at noon today for Joplin.—Monday's Springfield Republican

The party passed through Mansfield, stopping at Young's Hotel. They are clever people and we were glad they had a chance to take a look at the Gem City of the Ozarks.

OZARK LASSIE

The All-Day Singing

The all day singing at the Baptist church Sunday was attended by a large crowd who thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the day.
The old time singing was conducted by Uncle Syna Odle, of Cedar Gap—the songbird of the Ozarks—with old time songs from the Four-Note Social Harp and Christian Harmony books, singing the notes and then the words, was a genuine curiosity to many who had never heard anything like it before.
As a contrast of four generations, the Mansfield and Wolf Creek singing classes sang the new songs, J. W. Brazeal, Wm. Hensley and Joe H. Dennis, being the leaders.
Several out-of-town people attended.
W. A. Black, who with his wife own and edit the Mansfield Mirror, was a Springfield visitor this afternoon. He gets out one of the best country papers in the Ozarks of any thousand town—in fact it is the best of that class that comes to the Independent desk. Mr. Black and his good wife have many friends in Springfield who delight in their progress.—Springfield Independent.
